DACC OFFICERS RESCUE GERMAN SHEPHERD STUCK DOWN CEMENT WASH IN RIVERBED

BALDWIN PARK, Calif. – Two County of Los Angeles Department of Animal Care and Control (DACC) Major Case Unit officers rescued a German Shepherd yesterday that was stuck down a cement wash in a riverbed. On the afternoon of Oct. 5, 2016, DACC Corporals Jacquie Green and Sal Chacon assisted a Los Angeles County sheriff's deputy conducting a homeless sweep.

The DACC officers were walking on a riverbed located on the Interstate 605 freeway near Valley Boulevard and south of the Interstate 10 freeway in an unincorporated area near South El Monte when Cpl. Chacon saw the German Shepherd in the cement wash. Cpl. Chacon climbed down and hoisted the dog up while Cpl. Green lifted the German Shepherd out.

The German Shepherd along with eight cats that were also rescued during the call and were taken to the Baldwin Park Animal Care Center. All the animals were treated and are doing well with no health issues. The animals will be available for adoption beginning Oct. 9, 2016.
